DRESS CODE FOR SCHOOL & MINISTRY:

This dress code is not intended to be a legalistic set of laws. It is for the purpose of protecting you, your ministry for the Lord, and CEF from “any appearance of evil” (1 Thes. 5:22). We must avoid things that may offend others who have different convictions than our own, especially while serving in ministry.

1. All clothing must be neat and in good condition.
2. No clothing that is tight or suggestive should be worn.
3. No extreme hair color or style. Men’s hair length should be above shirt collar and eye brows.
4. No tank tops, bare midriffs, half shirts, net shirts, or shirts with any objectionable words/pictures.
5. No short-shorts or baggy pants hanging off the hips. Shorts must be no more than 2” above the knees. Gym shorts may only be worn at training school for activities.
6. Dresses and skirts must be no more than 2” above the knees. Dresses must have sleeves.
7. No low-cut necklines, spaghetti straps, or transparent clothing.

GENERAL POLICIES:

1. Cell phone use will be limited and may be banned if used excessively.
2. Music played in cars may only be Christian. (Drivers are not allowed to touch music controls.)
3. Personal listening devices are not allowed during work hours or at camp.
4. Dating among CYIA Summer Missionaries during the summer is discouraged. Our focus is on Christ and the children we are reaching.

FINANCIAL POLICIES:

1. If a CYIA Summer Missionaries is accepted for the summer and withdraws after May 1st, parents are responsible for camp payment ($400).
2. CYIA Summer Missionaries work 25 days and will be paid up to 40 hours per week.
3. CYIA Summer Missionaries will assist in raising support for Summer Ministry by doing the following
 - a. Sending at least 25 letters out to adults requesting support
 - b. Sending a letter to their home church requesting support for camp
4. CYIA Summer Missionaries will not be paid for any days missed regardless of reason.
